Quelccaya ice cap, Peru, the largest single glacier in the Peruvian Andes. The photograph on the left was taken in 1977, and the photograph on the right was taken in 2002, from the same place, demonstrating a dramatic recession. (Photographs by Lonnie G. Thompson, Byrd Polar Research Center, Ohio State University.)
