

Although there is no trend in the frequency of occurrence of all clouds over this time period, there is a noticeable increase in the occurrence of high clouds. Even strong El Niño events have little impact on the frequency of occurrence of clouds worldwide. (Data from the HIRS instruments on the NOAA 5 to NOAA 14 satellites.)